

Carlton ends spell; Hoyt beats Gooden

United Press International
Philadelphia's Steve Carlton has recorded his first victory of the season, thanks to rookie Steve Jeltz' first major league game winning RBI and moved into a tie in the 10th spot on the all-time win list.

The shortstop's strategic hit lifted Carlton 1-0, and the Phillies to a 2-1 victory Monday over the San Francisco Giants. Kent Tekulve recorded his first save for the Phillies.

The 38-year-old veteran left-hander, it was his 314th career victory, tying him for 10th with Gaylord Perry on the all-time list. Carlton worked seven innings, Tekulve two.

Carlton's lopsided win-loss record is deceptive — in his last 29 innings of work, he has allowed 18 hits and three runs.

Jeltz delivered the game-winning off-veteran left-hander Vida Blue, 2-1, following a one-out double to left by Glenn Wilson in the seventh with the score tied 1-1.

The Giants appeared to have a run in the fourth inning, but umpire Dick Stellor ruled Jeff Leonard's drive to deep center did not clear the fence. Leonard wound up at second with a double, and Carlton retired the next three batters to end the inning.

Padres 2, Mets 0
At New York, LaMar Hoyt threw a four-hitter for his first National League shutout and second complete game of the season. Hoyt 3-4 drove in San Diego's second run with his first major league hit. Dwight Gooden 6-2 went eight innings, giving up nine hits, walking none and striking out nine.
Cardinals 14, Braves 0
At Chicago, Davey Lopes of the Cubs had two hits and two RBIs to back the five-hit pitching of Scott Sanderson. Cincinnati's Pete Rose belted his first homer since Sept. 18, 1982, tying Hank Aaron for the all-time NL lead with 2,107 career runs. He is 63 hits shy of Ty Cobb's all-time hit record.

Pirates 3, Astros 1
At Pittsburgh, Steve Kemp walked with the bases loaded and Jason Thompson delivered a sacrifice fly in the ninth, allowing the Pirates to snap a three-game losing streak.

Cardinals 14, Braves 0
At St. Louis, Willie McGee drove in five runs to power Joaquin Andujar, 7-1. The Cardinals roughed up rookie Zane Smith, 2-3, for five hits and five runs in 2 1/3 innings and reliever Craig McMurry for six runs on five hits in 1 1/3.

American League Roundup
The major leaguers six-week dry run had ended in a soggy snap of reality.

Heavy rains Monday forced the postponement of the Milwaukee Brewer- Cleveland Indians contest. The scheduled Milwaukee game did not start in this season after 455 games.

The record for an uninterrupted schedule was 1960 when 44 games were played before a Pittsburgh-Philadelphia contest drew the wrath of the rainmakers.

A game between the San Diego Padres and Chicago Cubs was suspended by rain on May 5 but will be picked up on July 8.

"Wow! Finally, we can say we achieved a first," Cleveland manager Pat Corrales said. The game has yet to be rescheduled.

Elsewhere, Toronto beat Chicago 6-1, Minnesota downed Boston 5-2, Texas edged Kansas City 8-7, and California stopped Detroit 7-2.

Blue Jays 6, White Sox 1
At Toronto, Jesse Barfield cracked a two-run homer and a sacrifice fly to support Jimmy Key's four-hitter, leading the Blue Jays before a Bat Day crowd of 44,715. Key 6-2 pitched his first major league complete game. Tom Seaver, 4-2, failed in his attempt for his 253rd career victory.

Twins 5, Red Sox 3
At Minneapolis, Kirby Williams 7-0 scattered eight hits over 7 1/3 innings and hit the Twins. Butcher, 4-2, struck out two and walked none.

Rangers 8, Royals 7
At Arlington, Texas, Joe Beckwith, 1-2, uncorked a bases-loaded wild pitch allowing Curtis Wilkerson to score the winning run in the bottom of the ninth and capping a Texas comeback from a 7-0 deficit.

Angels 7, Tigers 2
At Anaheim, Calif., Bob Boone and Bobby Grich each drove in two runs and Ron Romanick hurled a seven-hitter, pacing the Angels. Romanick, 5-1, shut out the Tigers for 6 2/3 innings until yielding a two-run homer to Mike Laga.

Casper's home run nips Parisi's

AUBURN — Bob Casper homered in the bottom of the seventh inning Monday night to rally Cassidy's over Parisi's, 4-0, in the top of the first inning, but Cassidy's scored a run in the second, two in the fourth, and one each in the sixth and seventh.

Pal Sargent was 3-for-3 with a triple for Cassidy's. Larry Lepak, Bill Alcock and Ron Walawender each had two singles for Parisi's.

Greg Slywka was the winning pitcher over Walawender.

Stanton Automatics came up with a run in the top of the 10th inning to edge the Stockade Brew Crew, 8-7, in the Men's B Slow White Division.

The Stockade had tied the game, 7-7, in the bottom of the seventh.

Dan Dolph, Dave Coughlin, Roger Garr, Mike Mitchell and Mark Carnicelli each had two hits for Stanton Automatics. Greg Miccucci had four hits and John Corning chipped in three, including a homer, for The Stockade.

Gary Delaney drove in Mike Delf with the winning run in the bottom of the seventh as the Mac's Bears edged the Garroppy's Mugs, 8-7, in the Men's B Major Fast Pitch.

Delf had singled home Bear Groling with the tying run, after Groling drove in a run to get his team within 7-6.

Groling went 3-for-3 with two stolen bases, and Delf, Delaney and Mike Grillo each had two hits and two RBIs. Scott Rielly also knocked in two runs, and Grillo homered.

Tim Hudson homered for the Mugs.

Bob Donofrio pitched a four-hitter and struck out four as the Parisi's Rage shut out the Utopia Club, 11-0, in the Men's B Major Fast.

Mark Locastro, Pete Mentillo, Bill DeAngelis and Phil Mucedola each had two hits for the Rage.

Dave Shaw tossed a three-hitter to give the Tinker's Outlaws an 11-1 decision over Leone's Tavern in the Men's B Minor Fast.
